Locals.

Wanted at this office three good collectors. Liberal percentage paid. The Manhattan club was again raided last week.

The Legion Honor is still prepared to do business. Something startling will develop in a few days.

The Osceola fair is largely attended and the attractions there are many.

Arrangements are being made for a charitable fair or a sociable for the benefit of the poor.

Dr. S. R. Watts is quite ill at his residence 1808 M st., n. w. It is hoped the Doctor will soon recover.

Mr. A. I. Jones of Ohio, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mayes.

Rev. Wm. Gray, will start a Baptist newspaper. It will be devoted to the Baptist of this country.

Rev. W. B. Johnson will have a eulogy on the late Dr. Simmons are requested to be present. Invitation are out for the marriage of Dr. S. C. Snelson of Savannah, Ga., to Miss Lizzie Mason of this city. They will be married on Christmas evening, Dec. 25th, at Asbury M. E. church.

There is nothing in the world which will give prompter relief to all suffers from neuralgia than Salvation Oil. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

The recent cyclones in the South and West have done terrible damage to life and property, but there's one comfort left—the people clamor for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Mr. Chas. S. Morris, one of the most brilliant journalists, in this country, published a very able letter in the New York Press Wednesday. His letter is in reply to Mr. Montgomery of Miss.

It frequently happens that nasal catarrh is the intermediate step between influenza and consumption. The best remedy for expelling catarrh from the system is Old Saut's Catarrh Cure.

In these days of close economy, when you do not wish to send for your physician so often, keep Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup in the house and it will save you many an anxious moment. 25 cents.

Mr. Wm. Wright and bride (nee) Miss Serena Tucker, both of Richmond, Va., after an extended bridal tour North, spent several days in this city last week. The bride is an estimable young lady and is said to be very pretty. Mr. Wright is a mailing clerk in the Richmond city P. O., and is held in high esteem by his many friends both here and in Richmond. They left for home last Monday morning.

One of the most remarkable lists of famous contributors ever brought together in a single number of a magazine will be presented in the January issue of the Ladies' Home Journal, of Philadelphia. The authors in that number will include Henry M. Stanley, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, Ex-President Hayes, Hon. John Wamaker, Joseph Jefferson, Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Madame Albani, James Whitcomb Riley, Gen. Lew Wallace, George W. Childs, Dr. T. De Witt Talmage, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Robert J. Burdette, Edward Bellamy, Will Darleton, Charles A. Dana, Sarah Orne Jewett, George W. Cable, Julian Hawthorne, Mrs. Lyman Abbott, Mrs. Margaret Bottoms, and nearly twenty others.

SATISFIED WITH THE SOUTH.

Justice E. M. Hewlett who recently returned from Ga., on legal business, compliments the Southern white people highly. Among other things, Mr. Hewlett said, that the Southern white people treated him well; that he is convinced that all the Negro needs in the South is to make individual advancement. Every courtesy was shown him by the largest law firm in the State.

AN EVENING GATHERING

An Evening Gathering was given last Tuesday evening at the residence of the Misses Anderson, 105 O st., for the benefit of an old lady 100 years of age. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the house was densely packed. All kinds of games were played and music enlivened the occasion. Refreshments were served in abundance and at 11 o'clock the guests began to disperse and all that were present acknowledged that they had spent an evening of pleasure and asked that it be repeated. The gathering was a grand success, both financially and socially. The young ladies who proposed this party need to be congratulated on the noble idea of helping the aged.

HARRISON AND MORTON LEAGUE.

A meeting of the Harrison and Morton League was held at the office of the Bee last Tuesday evening, LeDroit Building, with Mr. Geo. H. Boston in the chair, and Mr. W. H. Jones, secretary. Mr. Chase offered the following names as honorary members: Hons. B. P. Cheatham, Thomas H. Miller, Jno. M. Langston, Capt. O. S. B. Wall, Andrew Gleason, Jerome A. Johnson, W. H. Booker, and H. C. Bruce. Twenty active members were admitted. The chairman appointed the following committee on hall: Chase, West and Jones. It was decided to hold the mass meeting after the holidays. The next meeting of the league will be held in the hall that will be selected by the committee on hall.

FREEMAN'S ART GALLERY.

Freeman, the Bee, while working in the city, has been looking for a place where he will be well "dressed" and where he can show his art. Freeman, who has by hard labor and perseverance won his reputation as a first class artist. He has among his collections some of the most distinguished men in the country, all of his own work. Among his many collections are the sage of Anacostia, Dr. Hamilton Smith, Major C. A. Fleetwood, Nathan Sprague, and many others. These are fine works of art and the public should not fail to visit Mr. Freeman's gallery of art. He is a young man who deserves to be encouraged.

CHIEF JUSTICE BINGHAM.

After many days rigid examination, a jury was found and qualified to try the case against Frank K. Ward for the murder of Morris Alder, in June last. The jury consists of ten white men and two colored men.

Mr. Clagett, assistant attorney of the United States for the District of Columbia, made his opening for the government on last Monday afternoon. The defendant's counsel reserved their opening; hence, the examination of witnesses for the government began. The case is being developed very interestingly both to the defendant and to the government. The court-house is crowded every day with spectators.

THE "CLEMENCEAU CASE" AT KERNAN'S.

Among the features of the Sensational Boom Model Burlesque and Spectacular Co., which will open at Kernan's theatre next week for one week only, including Christ mas matinee, is the latest version of the celebrated Clemenceau Case, in three sensational tableaux, in which will appear a living model of perfect form and matchless beauty.

"The Coronation of the Videt," a beuletta, is rich and resplendent and concludes with one of the most novel and original features, entitled "The Crowning of America's Emblem." Among the specialty artists who appear in the Olio are Harry S. Van Anken and Fred. S. LaVan, J. K. Mullen, and Annie Dunn, Rubby Hart, Frank Goldie and Sallie St. Clair, Matthews and Bulger and Lily May Hall. Golden Locks, the beautiful princess, a pretty happy burlesque, concludes the excellent entertainment, introducing many rich features and rare novelties, as well as handsome and shapely girls. Ladies Matinees Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, including grand Christmas matinee. Next week, Williams & Orr's Meteors.

LOUISE TO CLARA.

Dear Clara:—
What in the world did you mean last week? You must have certainly been in one of your peculiar moods. I can't agree with you in regard to that marriage. You will not find one woman in the city of Washington to agree with you. They attended the 15th St. Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning and to my surprise they received three congratulations. I feel so sorry for our dear girl in the northwest. She almost lost her mind when she heard of it. There is an old saying and a true one, "nothing goes over the devil's back but what comes under, &c." I understand that he had the audacity to call on her, just before the marriage took place and informed her that it was to be. I feel sorry for the poor girl and regret that girls are so weak. It is a shame for any man to deceive a woman whom he claims to love. I am surprised at this marriage because so many girls were disappointed.

Our genial friend Ex-Governor P. B. S. Pinchback has bought a house on 11th St. His wife and daughter are residing here now. I understand that the winter season will be more lively than it has ever been heretofore. Colored society in this city, like all other large cities, has its faults. The time has not yet come for the colored people to draw the line of discrimination. There is more color prejudice among this so-called colored society in this city than there is among the white people towards the colored. There are some colored people in this city who are afraid or ashamed to recognize some of their associates on the street. There are a few in the departments, and indeed I get so disgusted at times that I don't know what to do. My advice is to let society alone and go to work. Let us accumulate property, establish business enterprises and put our girls and boys to work. There is too much society talk and too little society.

You spoke concerning a visit you made a friend and while there her husband gave some impudence because the wife asked him where he was going. My dear girl, you have no idea how many wives are suffering to-day on account of good for nothing husbands. No good man will be unkind to an honest wife nor will a man ill-treat his wife if she is honest and kind. Men are often compelled to leave home on account of the bad temper of their wives; they are often compelled to find comfort in a more genial quarter. In such cases the women are to blame. Of course all women are not angels nor are all men devils.

Why is there so much jealousy among our people? If a girl dresses well, there will be some talk about her; if she does not dress they will talk also, so what are they to do? If she goes to church every Sabbath, some one will say that she goes to show herself; if she does not go it is strange that she remains in so much. If she goes out riding with a gentleman, the neighbors will talk, if she does not go out, some of the talkative neighbors will say, Oh! she can't go, no one will go with her. Some people will talk, it makes no difference how a young girl may conduct herself. I shall have something important to say in my next. Until then remember
Yours truly,
LOUISE.

THE VETERANS CELEBRATE.

The 23rd annual reunion of colored veterans of the civil war was held at the Metropolitan A. M. E. church last Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Robert G. Shaw Command, Union Veterans Union. The auditorium was brightened by large flags draped from the pillars and across the front of the platform, where were seated the committee of arrangements and the speakers.

The gathering was called to order by the familiar sound of the reveille, which stirred the veterans' pulses. Rev. J. W. Beckett, gave a short address of welcome. Miss Grace Shimm recited a tribute to Col. Robert G. Shaw, which was followed by the presentation of a handsome portrait of Col. Shaw, to the post by Mr. Robert H. Terrell, who spoke on behalf of Col. Shaw's family. Mr. R. Bruce Bagley received the picture in the name of the post. Maj. Charles B. Fisher, and J. Harry Smith paid short tributes to Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, and other war heroes. "The Burial of Shaw," was recited by Miss Beattie Hamilton, and "The Black Regiment," by Miss M. E. Bowen. The church choir roused the enthusiasm of the audience by a spirited rendering of war songs. Refreshments were served in the vestry, which were a decidedly martial air, with stacked guns and flags about the room. The old soldiers ate "hard tack, drank coffee from regulation tin cups and entertained their friends with reminiscences of the camp and battle. Among the distinguished guests were Congressman Miller, of S. C., Fourth Auditor John R. Lynch, Dr. J. W. E. Bowen and Gen. J. C. De Jarnette.

J. Coolidge

HARNESS ATTACHMENT

Patented

NOVEMBER 13TH, 1888.

J. S. Coolidge's Harness attachment is the best thing of the kind ever put on the market. It is so arranged that any one can secure it to any harness, in three minutes, without cutting the same in any way, right out in the street. It can be taken off the harness in two minutes, and the harness returned to its former style without the least trouble or exertion. It saves time in hitching and unhitching as a horse can be attached to the vehicle in less than 30 seconds and extricated in less than 5 seconds. It is an ornament to the harness and contains nothing in its parts to get out of order, the case being so constructed that the straps can be lengthened or shortened as is required. The Bolt is removable secured so as to allow the spring to be removed when worn. The particular advantage this device possesses over others consists in the construction of the case and arrangements of the straps, whereby the same may be attached to any harness without cutting the same, as has been heretofore necessary in order to use devices of this character.

To the loop of the Bolt may be attached lines 28, said lines being connected with the driver by suitable means, so that if the horse runs or becomes unmanageable, the tightening of the lines will draw the bolt 12, and the spring 24 will cast the plate 16 aside and release the animal from the vehicle. Any woman or child can hitch or unhitch a horse without the slightest trouble. Thousands of the attachments are being used every day.
